Growth of Broadway Presbyter-

Larger Quarters.

TWO ANNUAL MEETINGS HELD

Central Presbyterian Church Passed Prosperous Year—Officers Elected for Various Terms.

At the annual congregational meeting of Broadway Presbyterian church last evening, Dr. J. W. Stewart and Fred Titterton were reelected elders, and S. S. Davis, Phil Mitchell, and Paul Hamilton reelected trustees of the church. The report of Paul Hamilton, as treasurer of the church, showed a better year financially than has been experienced for many years, and there remains very little of the 12 months' indebtedness to be paid. The reports of the various branches of the church showed a successful year, and the report of W. M. Reck, superintendent of the Sunday school, on the work in that department was of particular interest. The growth of the school has been so great that it will be necessary in the near future to make plans for larger quarters to accommodate the school. Robert McMurtrie, superintendent of the South Park chapel, on Thirtieth street, reported that the institution is flourishing, and the residents of the district in which it is located are taking great interest in the work.

Central Presbyterian Church.
The annual congregational meeting of the Central Presbyterian church was held last evening at 8 o'clock, an indoor basket picnic in the Sunday school rooms of the church preceding the meeting. There were 140 members gathered at the picnic, and others attended the business meeting following.
A 20-minute devotional service followed the social session. At the business meeting Paul Brandenburg was elected chairman, and J. H. Liedtke secretary.
The first business of the meeting was the reading of the reports of the various church departments, and the report of the pastor, Rev. Marion Humphreys, on his work since taking charge of the church Aug. 1. The reports of the treasurers of the ladies' guild, the young peoples' social league, the woman's missionary society, and the Sunday school, showed a successful year, and each of the societies reported a good year financially, with a balance in the treasury.

Sunday School Grows.

The report of the Sunday school work was of special interest, and showed marked growth in that department during the year. Two new departments, the home department and the cradle roll have been added to the Sunday school work. The Sunday school is in charge of W. O. Talbot, J. H. Cleland, the superintendent of the Union Aiken street chapel, and H. H.
Robb, the treasurer, reported on the work of that institution. The school has experienced considerable increase in membership and interest, and during the last few months the members have cleared the school of the debt which has existed since the erection of the chapel. In addition to this, a fund has been started for improvements in the property.

After the reports, the following officers were chosen:

Session board—Orrin Leonard and J. H. Liedtke, 3 years; F. G. Young and W. A. Lohr, 2 years; Joseph Fox and H. D. Winbiger, 1 year.

Board of trustees—John Volk, Adair Pleasant, and Paul Brandenburg, 3 years; W. H. Gest, Jr., J. G. Hazard, and L. M. Titterton, 2 years; H. D.
Folsom, Captain H. A. J. McDonald, and Dr. R. M. Pearce, 1 year.

odist church, which has been holding its services in the hall on Fourth avenue will hereafter, until the completion of the new church, hold all regular first service will be held there Sunday morning. In the evening Miss May

OCCUPATION, PIANO PLAYER

Scrap of Paper With Inscription—"Earl, Piano Player, Rock Island"—
About 35 Years Old.

At Spring Valley yesterday a well dressed stranger entered a saloon, sat down, and drank carbolic acid from a bottle, dying from the effects. The only thing he had that indicated who he might be was a scrap of paper with the inscription, "Earl, piano player, Rock Island." Whether he is "Earl" or whether the scrap was used for reference is not known either in Rock Island or Spring Valley yet.

These Several Days.

It is probable that this referred to himself, as that was his occupation.
He had been playing in several places in Spring Valley, but no one there knew his name. He had been there only a few days. He was 5 1/2 feet in height, about 35 years of age, had light brown hair, brown eyes, and wore a

Attorney Harry A. Reherd. Elected Mayor of Geneseo.

They have close elections in Geneseo. Harry A. Reherd, the attorney, won out for mayor on the reform no license ticket over Mayor Sidney are but two no license aldermen in the council and it is not likely that saloons will be abolished.
